Pot Pourri

My evening came nigh
And I
Stared fiercely in his face;
My lips went writhing back in a grimace,
And stern I watched him from a narrow-eyed eye.
Then, as I turned away,
My anger,
That bitter heart and savage, said to me.

—Some day, when this is past:
When all the arrows that we have are cast;
We may ask one another why we hate;
And fail to find a story to relate;
It may seem to us, then, a mystery
That we could hate each other—
Thus said he; and did not turn away;
Waiting to hear what I might have to say!

But I fled quickly, fearing, if I stayed,
I might have kissed him, as I would a maid.
("Hate", by James Stephens).

Carceland

The Mothers' Day service of the United Church but on by the Mother of the church and the members of the Junior Explorers club were well attended and enjoyed by all.

The many friends of Laverne Cole are pleased to see him home again after his long stay in the hospital.

About one hundred friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Ballard of Moosehigh on Saturday for a shower for Mrs. Douglas Malmberg, the former Pat Mace. With a few well chosen words Miss Marguerite Dawson presented the bride with the many lovely gifts, the bride graciously thanking everyone.

Mr. Harry Moore returned home at the week end after spending several months in Calgary.

EDITORIAL NOTE

"I saw God in His glory passing near me, and bowed my head in worship—
—on the unfolding of a blossom.

A great wave has washed over the world drenching it in a sea of colour and song. Over all hangs a haze of beauty; of new life and the wonder of coming days. So great is the glory of Spring.

The Oddfellows Annual Parade was held last Sunday when they attended the United Church for the 10:00 o'clock service. Rev. H. E. Gordon preached the sermon. After church, lunch was served to the visiting members and friends by the local lodge in the 100P Hall.

Mrs. G. L. Buntin and Mrs. E. Albertson prepared a very suitable and entertaining program when the Women's Institute held their Mothers' Day on Wednesday, May 2nd. About 45 ladies enjoyed the program and the delicious refreshments.

Miss Merv Dye has been absent from her duties as telephone operator for a week suffering from flu. We are glad she is back again.

MORE 3 FROM HENS
 Isn't it natural that well fed poultry will lay more than stock birds? Your hens will be healthy and lay more eggs, instead of draining their body of those minerals, and becoming more subject to disease. Feed Watkins Mineralized Poultry Food and keep your flock in good condition.

ROCKYFORD

All are sorry to hear that Mrs. Fred Schaefer is at present sick in the Hospital, and join in wishing her a speedy recovery.

Rev. H. C. Hollis of Horden presided at a well filled church on Sunday May the 7th. He has received a call from here, which will come before the settlement board at the next conference. He will be taking over in July.

The Rockyford Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. Robertson on Wednesday afternoon, May 10th with a goodly number of members in attendance. Mrs. Bradwell, the president conducted the business of the day, during which it was arranged to cancel the meeting for the 5th of the month and hold the next session on June 1st at the home of Mrs. Chapman at which time the returns for the membership contest were to be handed in and the losing side will appoint the date for the banquet in this connection. Mrs. Roberts served a very tasty lunch at the close of the business.

The Rockyford Town Council have equipped a room in the Town Hall for the Secretary. The room is very tastefully decorated and all files for the town will be stored there. Mrs. Muehl-chner the Secretary will be at her office from 9.30 to 11.30 a.m.

Several of the Ladies entertained the Bridge Club on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. L. Reish, to three tables of bridge in honor of Mrs. Geo.
 Thibron one of their members who is this week leaving for her new home in Red Deer. At the lunch hour Mrs.
 Muehlchener on behalf of the club expressed the regrets for the loss of their member and presented Mrs. Thibron with a beautiful Electric Percolator with best wishes for happiness in her new home.

The office of the Rockyford Branch of the Alberta Government Telephones was moved last week to the office of the Calgary Power Company where a very nice light airy front room has been suitably equipped. The office is quiet and very suitable from a central standpoint.

The annual spring moving fever has again taken the town. This week will see a flurry in the central part when
